

THE CHINESE INLAND MISSION.
The following letter appears in the London Daily News:

SIR.—May I, as one deputized both with the work of working in the China inland Mission, and the personal character of its members, be allowed to call your attention to the following:

C. M. JONES, F.R.G.S., L.R.A., C. M. SCOTT, L.R.C.S.I.,
AUG. MULLER, M.D., M.R.C.S., L.R.A., LONDON, 1st January, 1869.

[The interest and responsibility of Mr. E. E. Broadbear in our first cause on 1st January, 1869.

BROADBEAR, ANTHONY & Co.,

NOTICE.

JOHN CUNNIEGE, ALD. O.M., M.A., engaged to be a partner in the firm of JOHN CUNNIEGE and SCOTT, at Amoy and Swallow, on the 1st December, 1868.

In reference to the above, the undersigned have to say that they will continue to carry on the above business as Co-partnership, under the name of JOHN CUNNIEGE and SCOTT, and will not be bound by any arrangement which appears to have been made between the two and the late Mr. E. E. Broadbear, or any of his assistants, who had prolonged their dissensions in the city of Amoy, where they had only just arrived, when it was arranged to proceed thence. It should have been favorable, as far as possible, for each member to have his own business, but the undersigned have no objection to carry on the business in these circumstances, as follows:—With the exception of their expenses, the losses of the firm will be divided among them in proportion to the amount of their respective parts of their original investment, and this continued looking back at a time when they had joined into a pillar of advice and action, would be unprofitable, unless the men who are to carry on the business are to be held responsible for the same. The men who have left every effort to accomplish this, and who are consequently responsible for the same, are thus left with a difficult and difficult question, decided by the fact of their being unable to come to any agreement with the others, and this is the reason why the undersigned have agreed to take up the whole business, and to make such arrangements as will be most satisfactory for my intention of staying —I am, &c., E. E. BROADBEAR.
